

Race - Ch. 14

1. What American city represented the positives of a multiracial and multicultural environment while at the same time disproved the theories of Gobineau and Chamberlain?
2. According to Aronson, what are the five common arguments against immigration today? (p. 197)
3. Most opposition to immigration stems from the core belief that new immigrants will never change enough to acquire American _____. (p. 198)
4. In what year did the U.S. enact its most stringent immigration law? (p. 200)
5. The annual immigration allowance was set at _____% of the ethnic/racial makeup of the population in 1890. Why did the U.S. lawmakers use 1890 as the reference point?