

Race - Ch. 12

1. What U.S. president was able to confine Japanese Americans in internment camps during WWII? (p. 145-146)
2. How did the callousness (you may have to Google this word) of the Civil War affect race relations (think Amerindians and Chinese) following the war? (p. 165)
3. Why did white Americans limit the opportunities for African Americans (especially in the American South) to acquire literacy and an education? (p. 166)
4. What form of "terrorism" did Southern whites use to limit the progress of the African American between the years of 1889 to 1936? (p. 169)
5. Name the movie produced in 1915 that glorified the Ku Klux Klan and negatively stereotyped the African American. (p. 172)
6. What U.S. president used the following comments to praise the movie (referred to in question #5): it is " . . . history written with lightning." (p. 172)